PLAYERS OFF THE COURT

CAMERON BROOKS

Class: Junior

Varsity player
Junior class
Date of Birth Jan. 22, 2001

In a recent chat with Varsity player, Cameron Brooks, I asked him some random questions to get to know him when he's not driving the lane on the court.

Q: Who is your favorite basketball player and why?

A: Frank Ntilikina. He wears number 11 and he's a pretty good rookie.

Q: Who is your go to band or artist when you cannot decide on something else to listen to?

A: Either Billy Joel or Bruce Springsteen, it'd be too tough to decide on one.

Q: What TV show or movie do you refuse to watch?

A: I refuse to watch Spongebob Squarepants.

WHO INSPIRES YOU TO BE BETTER? ..."LUNCH BUDDIES"...

Q: What amazing thing did you do that no one was around to see?

A: I did a complete cartwheel.

Q: What city would you most like to live in?

A: New York City.

Q: Who inspires you to be better?

A: The incredible kids that I got to meet through the "Lunch Buddies" program with the EHS Football team.

Q: What is something that no one knows about you?

A: I strongly dislike barbecue sauce on anything.

Q: Do you collect anything? If so, what?

A: I don't collect anything anymore, but I used to be big on collecting baseball cards and inherited some from my mother.

Q: Would you rather be stranded on a deserted island alone or with someone you do not like?

A: With someone I don't like. We would eventually come around and learn to like/work with each other.

Q: If you became famous for basketball, what would your baller name be?

A: Ginga Ninja
